DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness relections set forth in this Office action:

- (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior at are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Matrick (# US 5141556) in view of Ueno et al. (# JP 2003-192966).

Matrick discloses a recording liquid deposited as a liquid droplet on a support for printing thereon, comprising a dye (column: 2, line: 60-65; column: 10, line: 50-66), a solvent for dispersing the dye (column: 12, line: 45-65), and a surfactant containing an organic compound (column: 13, line: 35-68; column: 14, line: 1-30), wherein said surfactant is contained in an amount not less than 0.05 wt % and not larger than 10 wt % (column: 14, line: 30-35), and at 25 degree C., the surface tension is not less than 30 N/m and not larger than 60 N/m and the viscosity is not larger than 15 mPs. S (column: 15, line: 35-45).

Matrick differs from the claim of the present invention is that the surfactant containing an organic compound represented by the following formula:

Ueno et al. teaches that to get the blur free excellent printed image the recording liquid includes the alkylene oxide adduct of 2-butyl-2-ethyl-1,3-propanediol (see Abstract).

They didn't clearly teaches the formula of the 2-butyl-2-ethyl-1,3-propanediol, however the formula of the compound is same all the time, and formula of the 2-butyl-2-ethyl-1,3-propanediol is

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the surfactant of Matrick by the aforementioned teaching of Ueno et al. in order to have a blur free high quality printed image.
